Covid Precautions

In accordance with guidelines issued by the CDC and the PEC, we recommend masks when indoors, social distancing, and frequent hand washing. However, masks are now optional for vaccinated persons. Let us continue to look not just to our own interests but also to the interests of others. Sunday Morning Worship is available live and on-demand with links to YouTube from www.frieschurch.org.

Moravian Response to Ukraine Crisis

According to the Board of World Mission, Moravians have now raised over $210,000 to be used in assisting the resettlement of Ukrainian refugees. These funds have been disbursed to the Moravian Provinces hosting refugees, Czech Republic and German. For the latest updates, go to moravianmission.org and follow the links for the Ukrainian crisis.

Shred Event Offering

A tip of the hat goes out to everyone who participated in Shred Day! As previously announced, all proceeds are going to our Board of World Mission to assist those provinces now hosting refugees from Ukraine. You may turn in your gift today, or you can give online at <https://frieschurch.org>.

The Renovation of the Fellowship Hall

Many people made the renovation of our Fellowship Hall possible. It started with a gift of beautiful carpet from Sonny Whitney—enough for the fellowship hall and the back hall on the main floor. It continued with the hard work of a committee chaired by Greg Knouse, and design consultation by Betsy Hines and Sanjay Aher. Others who helped include Rob and Whitney Lang, Monroe Bowles, Roger Faircloth, and George Lamb who scheduled the installation of the chandeliers. Patti and John Petree gave the blinds, and Linda and Ron Montaquila custom-tailored their length. Meanwhile, the Technology Committee chaired by Mark Lamb and including George Lamb and Monroe Bowles worked to bring high-speed internet to our sanctuary, enabling us to simulcast our worship services online and into our fellowship hall. Both these goals grew out of a goal-setting event we held just prior to the Pandemic. They are but the beginning of a new era of outreach and ministry here at Fries. Let us thank God for what we have done and ask for God's guidance and blessing on all that is yet to be done.

Psalm 30

1 I will extol you, O LORD, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me. 2 O LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me. 3 O LORD, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit. 4 Sing praises to the LORD, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. 5 For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning. 6 As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved." 7 By your favor, O LORD, you had established me as a strong mountain; you hid your face; I was dismayed. 8 To you, O LORD, I cried, and to the LORD I made supplication: 9 "What profit is there in my death, if I go down to the Pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it tell of your faithfulness? 10 Hear, O LORD, and be gracious to me! O LORD, be my helper!" 11 You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy, 12 so that my soul may praise you and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

John 21:1-19

1 After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. 2 Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. 4 Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." 6 He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. 7 That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. 9 When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. 10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." 11 So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. 12 Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. 14 This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. 15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." 16 A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." 17 He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. 18 Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." 19 (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."
